Profile: Although there have been many misconceptions about Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) over the years, MADD has been the premier organization in the fight against drunk driving for over 27 years. This year, MADD Indiana is looking to enhance and increase our efforts at eliminating drunk driving fatalities in our state including; introducing ignition interlock legislation for all first time offenders, establishment of adult facilitated youth groups on several college campuses, and increased alcohol awareness programs to high school and elementary school children throughout Indiana. We will continue to serve the victims and their families.
